On April 15, 2011, the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York sued and shut down Pokerstars and several of its competitors' sites, alleging that they violated the UIGEA. The complaint alleges that the defendants, including the operators of the sites, conspired to defraud the public and to violate the UIGEA. The complaint also alleges that the defendants have engaged in a pattern of racketeering activity and have conspired to defraud the public. The complaint seeks injunctive relief, damages, and civil penalties.
