In a UFC no contest result, fighters typically do not get paid for the fight.

The specific payment terms may vary based on the fighter's contract and MMA policies.

However, it is common for fighters to receive at least a portion of their contracted pay, regardless of the outcome.

Do you estimate that Coprestis will receive any pay in a no-contest result?

Yes, because they are contracted to receive a portion of their pay.

No, because they only get paid for a win or a decision.
