Manchester United have been approached by intermediaries about signing Neymar from Paris Saint-Germain this summer. Erik ten Hag's side are one of a number of clubs who have been contacted about Neymar's potential availability. While a deal might make sense from a commercial point of view, he is not currently a United target. In any case, it is difficult to see how United would be able to sign him and pay his wages and how he would adapt to playing in the Premier League. Sky Sports News reported earlier this month that PSG would be willing to listen to offers for Neymar this summer. The news came after PSG condemned the actions of supporters who are understood to have gathered outside the home of Neymar and chanted for him to leave the club. Fans were filmed chanting for the board to resign outside club headquarters before further clips showed a group of supporters visiting the home of Neymar calling for him to move on. Paris Saint-Germain are also set to see Lionel Messi leave at the end of the season, with the Ligue 1 club not planning to offer the forward a new contract.
