The oldest casino in the world, the Casino di Venezia, sits on the Grand Canal in Venice. Opened in 1638, it was originally a theatre called the Teatro Saint Moses, which was destroyed by fire in 1681. The casino was rebuilt and reopened in 1683. It is the only casino in the world that has been operating since its original opening. The casino is a masterpiece of Venetian architecture, with its ornate facade and intricate details. It is a popular destination for tourists and locals alike, offering a unique gaming experience in a historic setting. The casino is also known for its beautiful gardens and the Grand Canal, which provides a stunning view of the Venetian lagoon. The casino is a must-visit for anyone interested in the history and culture of Venice.
