LOOK, BUT DON'T TOUCH For the most part, Vegas strip clubs have a no-touch policy for customers when it comes to the dancers both male and female. They can touch you as they give lap dances, but please refrain from groping the strippers, as that will get you in trouble with security.

Strip Club Etiquette - Exploring Las Vegas : nightlife-guide : strip-club-etiquette

Built in 1954 and opening on May 24, 1955, the Moulin Rouge was the first racially integrated hotel-casino not only in Las Vegas, but in the United States. Being the first of its kind, the property paved the way for integration in the city.
