Newton bought the Aladdin at a difficult time in Las Vegas's history. It was a period on which the federal government was cracking down on the mob and corporate ownership of the property. In March 1979, four Aladdin officials were indicted from Detroit with the help of a mobster to run the resort. Wayne Isaac, a Las Vegas Sun News columnist, wrote a new column about the crime bosses such as Doc Stacher and Meyer Lansky, who had acquired shares in the hotel and attracted Frank Sinatra, who made his performing debut at Sands in October. Sinatra later bought a share in the hotel himself. Gaisa Hospital e
