Sam's supernatural abilities were the result of him being fed Azazel's demon blood;

he was, an infant. Since he was born, he has been able to see the future (throughout the first season) through his "visions".

He has a "vision" of Dean Winchester's death in the future, which is why he is so determined to save him. He also has a "vision" of the "angel" that is killing Dean, which is why he is so determined to find it.
