The Intrinsic value of the fair bet is one on which the cost from the bet is identical to the expected cash payoff...? For example: if it had a lottery ticket that promised a 7% chance to win $100, a fair bet would be $7.00; If you could buy the bet for significantly less than $7.00 it is a good opportunity for calculating the Intrinsic Value of a Bet - Joshua Kennon josehuakennon : calculated-the-intrinsic-value-of-a-fair-bet
